

MATTSON & DILKES,

Merchant Tailors,

1346 Chestnut Street,

Philadelphia, Dec 15th 1886

Daniel M. Fox.

Dear Sir.

I wrote you a note one week ago asking if you had a rule compelling employes to pay their debts and have not had an answer from. so take the liberty to drop you one more. Mr. Chas. E. Blummer is the official I had reference to. he owes me $20. on his own account, and $9.³²/₁₀₀ on account of a friend of his for whom he made himself responsible it has been owing now over

for nearly two years. and I need the money and if there is any way to get the same I want to do so. trusting you will be kind enough to give this your attention I remain

Yours Very Resptly

Joseph J. Evans
 with Mattson & Dilke

1346. Chestnut St
 Residence 2129 Aubrey Place near 13th & Diamond

428

Recd Dec. 15th 1886.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 143

Mattson & Dilkes,
Merchant Tailors,
Philadelphia,
December 15, 1886

Danl. M. Fox,

Dear Sir,

I wrote you a note one week ago asking if you had a rule compelling employees to pay their debts and have not had an answer from, so take the liberty to drop you one more. Mr. Chas. E. Blumner is the official I had reference to, he owes me $20 on his own account, and $9.32 on account of a friend of his for whom he made himself responsible it has been owing now for nearly two years and I need the money and if there is any way to get the same I want to do so. Trusting you will be kind enough to give this your attention I remain.

Yours Very Respty.
Joseph J. Evans
With Mattson & Dilkes
1346 Chestnut Sst.
Residence 2129 Aubry Place
near 13th & Diamond